The Workforce Training Institute at SC4, in cooperation with JER Online, is proud to announce the Trump University online program for business education and professional development.

Empower yourself through education and training to become financially independent. The programs are designed to deliver effective and measurable results for our students in a much shorter time period than traditional education. The Trump University courses are designed by experienced faculty for immediate real-world application in five key areas:

- Entrepreneurship
- Marketing
- Real estate
- Personal assessment
- Wealth creation
