

St. Clair County Community College Board of Trustees adopted the following land acknowledgement in recognition of Indigenous peoples. The acknowledgement is to be read by an Indigenous community member or a person approved by the North American Indigenous Council at the first board meeting of each semester, Fall and Winter, and is published on the web page of the SC4 Board of Trustees.

The statement has been provided by Joan and Joe Jacobs of the North American Indigenous Council.

St. Clair County Community College acknowledges the Indigenous people of the Anishinaabek Nation that our Port Huron campus is on the traditional lands of and we pay our respects to the Elders past, present, and future who have stewarded this land for generations.

Statement authored by:

Joan Jacobs-Little Traverse Bay Bands of Odawa Indians in Harbor Springs

Joe Jacobs-Aamjiwnaang First Nation in Sarnia

Board approved: December 12, 2024